

Short description of the licenses and legal stuff.

Signing these documents only acknowledge that you are dealing with Carousel Software LLC, that you will not give the software to 3rd parties, and that we disclose that there is a timeout function embedded in the software which will shut it down if we do not get paid. It does not commit you to continue to use the software after the evaluation time.

Carousel Software will provide the first month's use free for evaluation and learning curve. Heck Enterprises has a different policy. Any Setup fee mentioned in the pricing document need not be paid till the end of the first full month of use. If you decide not to continue to use our software, you will not owe the setup fee.

At any time you can decide to stop using our software, and we will not bill you for any further use.

You of course can't give this software away to any other party.

And, Carousel Software and Heck Enterprises accept NO liability for anything that might go wrong.
